RECOGNITION/ACHIEVEMENTS

FLC Community Service Contest Recognition Ceremony

Council Liaison Hayden acknowledged the Youth Council as State Champions for the 2022 Florida League of Cities Community Service Contest.

Eryn Russell, Ambassador of Florida League of Cities (FLC), presented the Youth Council with their winning trophy for the 2022 FLC Community Service Contest Award. She discussed the following:

- Contest requirements
- Details of the Community Service Challenge completed by the Youth Council
- One of three winners of the 2022 FLC Community Service Contest Award
- Statewide competition

Ambassador Russell congratulated the Youth Council on behalf of the Florida League of Cities and thanked them for their service to the Community.

Council Liaison Hayden voiced his appreciation to FLC and Ambassador Russell. He indicated that Ms. Russell had traveled from Tallahassee to present this Award. He also expressed how proud he is of the Youth Council's efforts with their undertakings for the Community Service Project; ultimately leading to this achievement.

Chair Bernau thanked Ambassador Russell for coming to present the Youth Council with their Award.

ADVISOR PRESENTATIONS

Upcoming Council Report – Advisor Mazurkiewicz

Chair Bernau stated that Advisor Mazurkiewicz was unable to attend today's meeting.

Council Liaison Hayden informed the Youth Council that Mia Poskon had resigned as a Member of the Youth Council. He discussed the forthcoming vacancy advertisement and process.

CITIZENS INPUT TIME

None.

RECOMMENDATIONS TO COUNCIL

Chair Bernau inquired if Member Arevalo received any photos from Members or needed any for the Quarterly Report Presentation.

Member Arevalo requested Member Reamer send her pictures of the (prospective) Love Locks Project.

Member Reamer nodded in acknowledgement.

Chair Bernau reminded Members the upcoming Quarterly Report Presentation would be presented to City Council on September 21, 2022.

Administrative Contact Griglin quizzed if Member Arevalo was aware the submission deadline for the PowerPoint presentation was due to her by end of day on September 5th (Labor Day) and if she had enough pictures for each topic.

Member Arevalo stated that she had begun assembling the layout of the presentation.

Administrative Contact Griglin clarified that she was aware September 5th is a holiday and would still need the presentation sent to her by end of business day.

Member Arevalo responded in the affirmative.

Discussion held regarding:

- How the Community survey process is completed as it relates to the Strategic Plan
- How the Strategic Plan factors in and involves the Youth in the Community
- How goals of the Strategic Plan progress and are met

Council Liaison Hayden discussed the following:

- Development of a prospective Youth Council Strategic Plan
- Can be a fluid document adjustable by future Members of Youth Council
- Consider principles and values, vision and mission, and words to include
- Suggested Members send their thoughts on the aforementioned topics in an email to Administrative Contact Griglin over the next few weeks
- Suggested after the Youth Council Workshop Meeting this year, Members consider having a meeting in early 2023 devoted to discussing their Strategic Plan

Assistant to the City Manager Buice extended an offer to assist any Members of the Youth Council should they require support for the completion of their Strategic Plan.

Council Liaison Hayden shared that he made an inquiry with Ambassador Russell as to if there are any other Youth Councils in the State that have a Strategic Plan. He thanked Assistant to the City Manager Buice for her time.

Chair Bernau thanked Assistant to the City Manager Buice for her presentation.

Discussion held regarding the scheduling process of holding a prospective meeting in early 2023 devoted to the Youth Council discussing their Strategic Plan, as recommended by Council Liaison Hayden.

2022 FLC Youth Council Annual Conference Program Discussion

Council Liaison Hayden praised the way the Youth Council Members in attendance represented themselves and the City of Cape Coral. Discussion held regarding the Conference as follows:

- Connecting with other Youth Councils in the State of Florida
- Prospect of receiving Community Service hours for attending Youth Council Meetings
- Provided an opportunity for more camaraderie amongst Members

Spring Gala Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau stated at the last meeting consensus agreed, without objection, to select the format of invitation option two. She inquired if Communications Director Garcia had received any Member responses regarding updating the invitation since the last meeting.

Communications Director Garcia stated she did not receive any Member responses.

Member Arevalo explained that she had emailed Communications Director Garcia as requested but did not recommend any changes.

Communications Director Garcia responded in the affirmative.

Administrative Contact Griglin discussed the updated invitation that was displayed and included in the meeting backup. She explained that Communications Director Garcia listened to the prior meeting audio and made updates accordingly.

Member Bella and Vice Chair Little complimented the updated invitation.

Discussion held regarding how the invitation will be sent out and to whom.

Administrative Contact Griglin clarified that the invitation would be utilized as a Save-the-Date for the time being.

Member Negron moved, seconded by Vice Chair Little, to approve the 2023 Spring Gala invitation (Save-the-Date), as presented. Voice Poll: All "ayes." Motion carried.

Chair Bernau suggested Members consider and brainstorm ideas for: Venue, dress code, and sponsorships. She reminded Members that at the last meeting, Councilmember Nelson agreed to Chair a prospective Silent Auction.

Member Osinski suggested Black Tie or Black Tie Optional for the dress code.

Discussion held regarding:

- Lake Kennedy Center as a venue
- If planning to have a larger Gala, would have to consider a larger venue than Lake

Kennedy Center, associated costs, and expected attendance

- Advertisement
- Planning sponsorships and fundraisers
- Dress code details and suggestions

Vice Chair Little moved, seconded by Member Reamer, to approve Black Tie Optional as the attire (dress code) of the 2023 Spring Gala. Voice Poll: All "ayes." Motion carried.

Consensus agreed, without objection, to direct Communications Director Garcia to add the attire (dress code) to the 2023 Spring Gala invitation (Save-the-Date).

Chair Bernau discussed obtaining options and images for venues. She suggested Members research venues and send the information and photos to Administrative Contact Griglin.

Administrative Contact Griglin advised Members the deadline to submit backup material for the next meeting would be September 5th.

Discussion held regarding the number of attendees at the last Spring Gala, approximately 75-80 attendees.

Administrative Contact Griglin encouraged Members to meet with prospective venue representatives. Reach out to the venue. Ask if you can setup a meeting. Do they have flyers to hand out? Pricing information? Try to get as much information as you can prior to the next meeting.

Discussion held regarding setting a goal for number of attendees.

Council Liaison Hayden noted the limitation on venues within Cape Coral that can accommodate an event for 150 occupants or above. He discussed options such as: The Westin, Palmetto-Pine Country Club, La Venezia, and possibly the Mercola. He pointed out the Yacht Club may not be a venue to consider due to the potential for closures related to project completion. He shared that Joni Johnson would be a contact for Palmetto-Pine Country Club.

Chair Bernau restated the deadline to submit backup material for the next meeting was September 5th.

Discussion held regarding the possibility of live entertainment at the Gala.

Chair Bernau suggested discussing the prospect for live entertainment at a future meeting. She expressed the importance of securing a venue and sponsorships prior to discussing other related matters such as entertainment.

Discussion held regarding:

- Continuing to seek entertainment prospects for the Gala
- Ticket cost
- At the last Gala, student (20 and under) tickets were $5 and adult tickets were $30

Special Populations Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau stated at the last meeting, all Members were requested to email Administrative Contact Griglin with their top three events from the Special Populations event calendar so overall consideration could be made and an event selected at today's meeting. She inquired if Administrative Contact Griglin had received any Member responses other than those included in the backup material.

Administrative Contact Griglin stated she had not received any additional responses from Members.

Discussion held regarding prospective Special Populations events to be attended by Members of the Youth Council.

Member Brucker left at 4:06 p.m.

Consensus agreed, without objection, to select/attend the (Special Populations) Halloween Dance on Thursday, October 27, 2022, from 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at Lake Kennedy Center.

Senior Project Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau shared that she had not yet connected with Supervisor Gerhard at the Cape Coral Art Center. She recapped the prior discussed ideas as follows:

• Decorating benches and/or courtyard area at the Cape Coral Art Center (basketball hoop/court)

• Re-purposing litter or collected waste from the cleanup days and Adopt-A-Road Program as art

• "Paint-by-numbers" style mural

Discussion held regarding:

- Potential challenges with taking on the courtyard decoration idea due
- Advertisement
- Taking on the "paint-by-numbers" style mural
- Taking on the "paint-by-numbers" style mural and selecting another "small" project on-site to complete

Member Reamer suggested focusing on the "paint-by-numbers" style mural and not the smaller projects.

Member Osinski agreed with Member Reamer's sentiments. She expressed apprehension for taking on a large number of commitments and suggested speaking to Supervisor Gerhard prior to making a decision.

Chair Bernau agreed with Member Osinski's sentiments.

Discussion held regarding:

- Potential for (optional) fundraising idea to charge for customization of mural by attendees
- Having a Community event and incorporating fundraising efforts

Member Reamer moved, seconded by Member Ordonez, to select the "paint-bynumbers" style mural as the 2022-2023 Senior Project. Council polled as follows: Ancheta, Arevalo, Bella, Bernau, Little, Negron, Ordonez, Osinski, Polanco, Reamer, and Rodriguez voted "aye." All "ayes." Motion carried 11-0.

Chair Bernau inquired if any Members were interested in attending a meeting with Supervisor Gerhard at the Cape Coral Art Center (regarding the Senior Project.)

Show of hands: Bernau, Little, Ordonez, Osinski, Polanco, Reamer, and Rodriguez

Chair Bernau stated she would send the meeting availability information from Supervisor Gerhard to interested Members.

Junior Project Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau stated at the prior meeting, Junior Members discussed creating a Kindness Rock Garden, as well as the possibility of building it in a Cape Coral public park.

Discussion held regarding:

- The images for this topic provided in the backup material
- Type of rock to select and the potential cost

Member Arevalo suggested using river rock for the Garden and shared her plans to reach out to 84 Lumber, Home Depot, and Lowes to discuss the rocks and associated costs. After conducting research, she concluded that acrylic paint may work best with the rocks. She shared her intention to contact Michaels, Hobby Lobby, and the Cape Coral Art Center to inquire if they may perhaps supply the paint.

Discussion held regarding:

- Possible painting process of the Kindness Rock Garden
- Whether the rocks should be primed and/or coated
- Selecting a location for the Garden
- Mapping out the dimensions at different parks

Vice Chair Little queried if Member Arevalo would appreciate some assistance with contacting businesses.

Member Arevalo responded in the affirmative and suggested questions Vice Chair Little could ask the businesses.

Administrative Contact Griglin instructed Vice Chair Little to forward any follow up information to her to compile. She suggested Members review the Facebook page "Cape Coral Rocks."

Discussion held regarding potential selection of the Kindness Rock Garden for the Junior Project.

Member Arevalo confirmed that information was still being compiled and once the information was compiled, she would provide it to Superintendent Creed for consideration and approval.

The Love Locks Project Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau stated in previous meetings, the Youth Council agreed to select Cultural Park as the placement for the Love Locks Project. Other topics discussed at the last meeting were fundraising, the weight of the statue, and gathering scrap metal. She inquired if Members had any fundraising ideas.

Member Reamer stated that he did locate scrap metal that could be utilized from Florida Gulf Coast University (FGCU) and sent the images to the welder for consideration.

Discussion held regarding establishing a GoFundMe account.

Administrative Contact Griglin explained that the Youth Council could fundraise, though she would consult the City Attorney's Office regarding the establishment of a GoFundMe page.

Vice Chair Little suggested hosting an in-person Community event.

Discussion held regarding:

- Movie Night in the Park and Staff contact from the Parks and Recreation Department
- Having one event to encourage attendance and limit the exertion of Members on multiple events
- Having one event at the Cape Coral Art Center

Member Polanco left at 4:38 p.m.

Future of Youth Council Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau stated that at the last few meetings there had been discussion regarding how the Youth Council wishes to move forward regarding their initiatives and legacy. There was also discussion about hosting a Workshop Meeting on November 15th to discuss important topics with the youth of the Community and promote positive communication with local leadership.

Discussion held regarding what time to hold the Workshop Meeting.

Member Reamer moved, seconded by Member Rodriguez, to cancel the Regular Meeting of the Youth Council on Friday, November 18, 2022, at 3:00 p.m. and select Tuesday, November 15, 2022, at 4:00 p.m., as the date for the upcoming Youth Council Workshop. Voice Poll: All "ayes." Motion carried.

Future Presenters Continued Discussion

Chair Bernau stated in past meetings, the Youth Council had discussed plans for inviting representatives from the Community as well as Youth Council alumni to speak at a meeting. She queried if there were any recommendations as to the implementation of this idea.

Administrative Contact Griglin queried how current Members planned to contact Youth Council alumni.

Discussion held regarding:

- How to make contact with Youth Council alumni
- Assisting Administrative Contact Griglin with attempting contact with Youth Council alumni
- Providing alumni with the meeting schedule to confirm their availability

Chair Bernau volunteered to assist Administrative Contact Griglin with reaching out to Youth Council alumni.

Member Osinski agreed to reach out to Youth Council alumni, Amanda Figueroa.

NEXT MEETING AGENDA TOPICS

Chair Bernau opened the floor to discuss the agenda topics to add to the next Youth Council meeting.

Discussion held regarding topics and items to add to the next meeting agenda:

- Item 10.A. 2030 City of Cape Coral Strategic Plan Continued Discussion
- Item 10.C. Spring Gala Continued Discussion
- Item 10.D. Special Populations Continued Discussion

2022 FLORIDA LEAGUE OF CITIES YOUTH COUNCIL D E O COMPETION

OVERVIEW

The Florida League of Cities (FLC) is pleased to announce the 2022 Youth Council Video Competition! The goal of the competition is to provide a way for Florida's youth councils to showcase their ideas, creativity and commitment to their communities.

This year's video competition asks councils, "How has your youth council made a positive impact on your city government and its residents?" Within the video, answer the following questions:

- How has your youth council made a positive impact on your government and its residents?
- How does your youth council plan on continuing to implement positive change?
- How can other students in your community get involved in youth council programs or initiatives that positively impact your government and residents?

The nomination must include:

- The YouTube link to your video, up to 5 minutes long, that the judges can view. (No other link will be accepted.)
- 2. A 150-word summary of your video.
- 3. A letter of recommendation from the Mayor, Manager or a Council Member/ Commissioner.

The deadline for entries is Friday, November 18, 2022. Your nomination will NOT be scored if missing any of the above. The League is not looking for professional quality, just creativity and imagination!

APPLICATION RULES

- The Florida League of Cities video competition is open only to youth councils sponsored by a city, town or village government that is a member of the Florida League of Cities.
- > Judging will be based entirely on the youth council's entry.
- The judges' decision is final, and all material received becomes the property of the Florida League of Cities, with permission to use it perpetually and universally, in any manner deemed appropriate by the League, with no additional compensation beyond the award money presented to the winner.
- > The video should be no more than 5 minutes long.
- If you use copyrighted music and cannot prove that you have received written permission from the artist, it will not be judged.
- > All materials must be received by the League no later than November 18, 2022.

SUBMISSION

All work must be submitted through an online form found at floridaleagueofcities. com/municipal-youth-councils. This form will allow you to upload all documentation. Please fill out all information fields.

Submissions that are emailed or mailed will NOT be judged.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF WINNERS

Winners will be announced in December, and three projects will be selected as winners. Winners will:

- Be showcased on the League's website and social media platforms
- Be recognized in press announcements and the League's Quality Cities magazine
- > Be recognized at a local city council or commission meeting
- Receive a monetary award of $250 and a trophy/plaque.

The League reserves the right not to award all prizes.

For more information, please contact Eryn Russell at 850.701.3616 or erussell@flcities.com.

Rocks are natural material and are therefore subject to changes in color and texture over time. Irregularities and consistency of color in each bag should not be considered a fault but inherent beauty of natural stone. Rocas son materiales naturales y por lo tanto estan sujetos a cambios en color y textura con el tiempo. Irregularidades y la consistencia de color en cada bolsa no deben considerarse un fallo pero la belleza de la piedra natural.
